CHAPTER - 1

A. INTRODUCTION

Insider Trading is dealing (buying and/ or selling) in the securities of the Company by any connected or deemed to be connected persons while in possession of any material unpublished price sensitive information, in breach of a fiduciary duty or other relationship of a trust and confidence, to gain personal benefit out of such dealing.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), under the powers conferred to it under the SEBI Act, 1992, had formulated the SEBI (Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992, to protect the interest of the investors in general, which were later on amended on the recommendations of a Committee headed by Shri Kumar Mangalam Birla. The new regulations, known as the "Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992" (hereinafter referred to as "the SEBI Regulations"), were notified in the Gazette and made effective from February 20, 2002. The amended regulations regulate as well as prohibit the menace of insider trading. The SEBI Regulations also requires every listed company to frame and implement an Internal Code for prevention of insider trading, more or less on the lines of Model Code provided therein.

B. OBJECTIVE

The Company endeavors to preserve the confidentiality and prevent the misuse of un-published price sensitive information. The Company is committed to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all the applicable laws and regulations. Every Director, Officer, Designated Employee of the Company has a duty to safeguard the confidentiality of all such information which he/ she obtained in the course of performance of official duties. Directors, Officers and Designated Employees of the Company should not use their position to gain personal benefit. To achieve these objectives, M/s Television Eighteen India Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") hereby notifies this "CODE FOR PREVENTION OF INSIDER TRADING" ("the Code").

This Code of the Company, formulated and implemented to comply with the mandatory requirements of the SEBI Regulations, is designed to:
